BOOK SYNOPSIS

When ex-Navy SEAL Chuck Graham decides to go to Jamaica for a scuba-diving holiday, he stumbles into a plot that has been developing since 1945. Someone ransacks his hotel room, searches his aircraft, and steals his weapons cache. Graham is even attacked while scuba diving. He barely escapes with his life before being rescued by the German-speaking crew of a large yacht. Just before he loses consciousness he sees the words Caribbean Sentinel painted on the yachts transom. Things grow more complicated for Graham when he reunites with Kerri Epperson, his former girlfriend, and the men who have pursued Graham turn their attention to Kerri. To rescue Kerri and uncover the thugs motives, Graham must call on all the skills he learned as a Navy SEAL. But he cant do it alone. He must learn everything there is to know about his enemies, himself, and the one man who can help him: the Caribbean Sentinel.
